

Oxford Studio Tour

MEDIA RELEASE – For Immediate Release

Woodstock, ON – Meet the artists of the 2015 Oxford Studio Tour and take a moment to view a selection of their work. The will be held on Saturday, May 2nd and Sunday, May 3rd from 10:00am – 5:00pm each day, throughout the County of Oxford.

“You are invited to visit 20 studios located throughout Oxford County where you will meet 41 different artists, watch demonstrations and experience a world of creativity”, says participating artist, Sue Goossens.

Attendance is free and guests will also enjoy a leisurely drive from site to site while taking in the local landscape. There will be original art, pottery, sculptures, jewelry and wearable art, photography and fibre arts included in the wide variety of works that will be available to view and purchase.

Each year the studio tour changes face, changes places, as artists rotate their locations, and present fresh art.

Visit the website www.oxfordstudiotour.ca to preview the works of participating artists and to print off a map.

Maps are also available at the Station Arts Center in Tillsonburg, the Ingersoll Creative Arts Centre, the Woodstock Art Gallery and Tourism Oxford located at 580 Bruin Blvd. in Woodstock.

Directions: Oxford Studio Tour - Throughout Oxford County. See the 2015 Studio Tour Map for studio locations. Watch for red flags and signs!

About Tourism Oxford: Based in Oxford County, Ontario, Canada, Tourism Oxford, established in 2001, is a membership driven organization, connecting visitors and residents to local attractions, restaurants and accommodations. Also, it is the home of Oxford Fresh, a group of chefs, restaurants and food producers dedicated to the promotion of local food; and to the Cheese Trail, where visitors can travel through the heart of Canada's Dairy Capital.

For more information, please contact:

Deb Beard
41 Bridge St. W.
Tillsonburg ON N4G 5P2
519-842-6151
office@stationarts.ca
www.oxfordstudiotour.ca